TO FIRE 1,218 SALUTES

Admiral Evans' Fleet to Burn Much Black Powder.

ALL THE NOISE FOR PRESIDENT

Arrangements Perfected for the Great Naval Review on Labor Day Off Oyster Bay—Roosevelt to Sail by the Pride of the Navy.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 23.—The great naval review off Oyster Bay on Labor Day will not cost Uncle Sam a million dollars as has been reported.

It will cost only $600 over and above the cost of maintaining the fleet of vessels for one day, which would have to be borne whether or not there were any review. The only extra expense attached to the big display will be for the saluting. The navy does not use its heavy guns in saluting, but the small six-pounders. It also uses old-fashion black powder that has been condemned for all other purposes.

The cost of these discharges, as estimated by the Bureau of Ordnance, is 50 cents a shot, including wear and tear on the gun and ship. There will be twenty-six saluting vessels in the fleet. As soon as the Mayflower appears upon the scene and unfurls the President's flag, all of these ships will unite in a salute of twenty-one guns. That means a total of 546 shots. Then as the President's ship passes along the lines, each ship will salute again with twenty-one guns.

But in the second round the Dolphin and Des Moines will not join, they not being part of the regular fleet. That makes a total of 1,050 shots. Then it is expected that the President will pay a visit to the senior officers on board the Maine (Admiral Evans' flagship), the Alabama, West Virginia and Louisiana; they will again salute, making a grand total of 1,218 guns to be fired during the day.

It has been decided that the luncheon on board the Mayflower to be given by the President to the senior officers participating in the demonstration will be at 1:30, instead of 1 o'clock in the afternoon, in order to afford the President more time in which to complete his review of the assembled fleet.

The Mayflower is scheduled to leave Oyster Bay at 10:45 A. M., which will enable her to reach the head of the reviewing lines at 11 o'clock sharp.

ITALIAN WOMAN ASSAULTED.

Merchant Has Partner Arrested on a Serious Charge.

(Special to the Daily Press.)
RICHMOND, VA., Aug. 23.—R. Casci, an Italian, was arrested today and held without bail upon the charge of having committed a criminal assault upon Mrs. Mary Lucchisi, the wife of his partner, A. F. Lucchisi.

The two Italians are in the plastering business together and both live in the same house in Byrd street. Mr. Lucchisi asked her husband not to leave her alone in the house with Casci. At first the husband did not know what to think of his wife's statement, as he and Casci had long been friends and had worked together for months. But when his wife said she feared the man, then Lucchisi played a little trick by which he caught Casci in the act of trying to commit an assault.

Last night he left his house, ostensibly to purchase a watermelon, saying he would return in fifteen or twenty minutes. Instead of going for the melon, however, he stood in a dark hallway and saw Casci attempt the assault. He heard the woman scream and then he burst through the door and Casci fled through another exit.
